

UNIVERGE® SP350

Soft client for Laptops & PCs

Empowering the Smart mobile worker

Take advantage of a multimedia IP network in the office or on the road with UNIVERGE Soft Client SP350.

Employees need the flexibility to work from anywhere and having a fully featured softphone on their laptop will allow them to work in the office, at home or while travelling.

This convenient mobility tool lets you share, in real-time, information and ideas from your PC or Laptop with high quality video, audio, text and application features. SP350 saves time, improves productivity and reduces your total cost of ownership.

The SP350 offers:

- > Simple and easy to use intuitive graphical user interface means SP350 is easy to use, but also delivers the telephony capabilities you expect from an NEC phone.
- > Hold multi-party video conferences with up to 8 parties.
- > Send Instant messages to individuals or groups. You can place a phone call or send a reply mail right after receiving a message.
- > Search "Phone book", "Contacts", and "Call history". SP350 can be integrated to your corporate directory for always up-to-date information.
- > Sharing your screen and applications with others allows you to make speedy, informed decisions.
- > Transfer files with a "drag and drop" operation during a meeting. No need to send files via a separate email.
